Costa Rica is alive with birdlife and is a major hub of the North American winged migration.

Both the casual and dedicated bird watcher will delight in the numbers of species and the ease of viewing; Costa Rica is a birders paradise. This trip is designed for the independent traveler and is moderately priced.

You will visit two popular birding locations, Monteverde Cloud Forest and the wildlife sanctuary of Manuel Antonio. We also offer budget 4x4 car rentals which will allow you to stop and spot along the way. Our office staff are experienced Costa Rican birders and can answer your questions.
